

Why to Apply

- You will get a prestigious “International Economic Relations” diploma of the bachelor’s and/or master’s degrees
- Your educational environment will be comfortably friendly and truly international
- Your qualitative knowledge and skills are guaranteed by the highly-professional team of educators speaking fluent English
- You will gain practical experiences of cooperation with foreign companies and the best Ukrainian exporting enterprises.

Employment Opportunities:

- International business owners
- Specialists of diplomatic and trade missions
- Leading positions in divisions of the international economic activity
- Customs officers
- Analysts for international business entities of different scale
- Financial advisors for international investment
- International communications experts
- Etc.

Enterprises and Organizations Interested In Our Graduates:

- international companies, financial institutions with foreign investments
- enterprises engaged in international activities, customs service
- foreign trade missions
- departments of international relations in state and local authorities.

Admission Process

is simple: submit your supporting documents in accordance with the requirements listed on either of the following websites:

<https://vstup.sumdu.edu.ua/pryimalna-komisii/vstup-inozemnykh-hromadian.html>

Admission committee official website

Department
official
website

Ask For More

- Head of the International Economic Relations Department: Doctor of Economics, prof. Yuriy Petrushenko
y.petrushenko@uabs.sumdu.edu.ua
- Head of the master’s program: Doctor of Economics, prof. Leonid Taraniuk
l.taraniuk@uabs.sumdu.edu.ua
- Address: 57, Petropavlivska str., educational building №2, room №315, 40000, Sumy, Ukraine
- Phone: +38(0542) 66-50-42
- Website: mev.biem.sumdu.edu.ua/en
- Instagram: instagram.com/sumdu_kafedramev
- Facebook group: facebook.com/groups/616880561665331

SUMY STATE UNIVERSITY

International Economic Relations

Bachelor’s
and Master’s Degree
Academic Programs

Benefits

of Our Programs:

- Training at the bachelor' degree program takes 3 years and 9 months, at the master' degree 1 year and 4 months
- Opportunity to study in English during the entire program of study
- Curricula are monitored and revised by the leading employers and true professionals
- the highest quality of training is guaranteed by foreign professors and professionals from Ukraine
- In-depth study of English and a second foreign language - French or German
- Constantly updated syllabuses, problem-oriented course projects and a graduation thesis, relevant to the current trends of the international business
- Internship opportunities at the leading international companies and at the best exporting enterprises of Ukraine.

You Will Be Gaining Knowledge In The Areas Of:

- efficient international business
- organization and planning of international economic activity
- development of international economic activity
- international marketing strategy
- international trade
- international logistics
- international law
- international finance
- accounting of international operations
- international investment activity
- modern business communications and cross-cultural management
- diplomatic relations.

You Will Be Trained In The Following Competencies And More:

- understanding of international business development trends, forms and methods of its conduct taking informed decisions in the sphere of international economic relations
- evaluation of international business entities, their efficiency and their position on the world markets
- forecasting the development trends of international markets with regard to their changes
- comprehensive analysis of the international business environment.

This Chosen Degree Program Is Potentially Aimed At:

- Development of your creativity and ideas generation
- Encouragement of scientific and creative activities
- Involvement in the implementation of grant programs
- Opportunity of further postgraduate education
- Formation of your highly professional up-to-date knowledge and skills
- Empowerment of fluency in foreign languages and information technology
- Development of qualitative academic mobility and internship programs
- Equality and inclusion.

Who We Are

The Department of International Economic Relations is a department oversees the "International Economic Relations" specialty both at the bachelor and master levels. The master's program includes the following educational area: "International Business".

All courses are taught in English at the highest level of proficiency: B2-C1 language certificates.

We are the team of professionals with at least a 10-years' experience in the field. Having worked at the international level we assure the quality of your education from the first days at the university to your graduation.

Our mission is to teach at the world quality standards following the global trends for the benefits of our students. Students-centered learning, development of creativity as well as critical thinking skills are in our focus.

We are staffed with: 7 Dr. in Economics, 21 Ph. Dr. in Economics, 3 foreign professors (from USA, Israel and Poland).

Our instructors are not only successful in teaching and science but they all have relevant practical experience, many of them abroad.

Our Capacities To Provide You With The Best Educational Environment Are:

- Modern classrooms
- Comfortable accommodation
- Comprehensive audiovisual educational materials
- Modern scientific library
- Comprehensive training facilities for sports (track and field arena, 2 swimming pools, more than 50 sports classes)
- Facilities for creative abilities and personal development
- Numerous catering facilities
- Modern medical clinic
- Perfect location of the campus right within the city center.